Reimagining #4

Independence

"Swimming at Port Stanley, and seeing friends everyday."

"meeting new friends"

"Making new friends.
Making crafts and baking."

"Field trip, connecting with friends"

Challenges

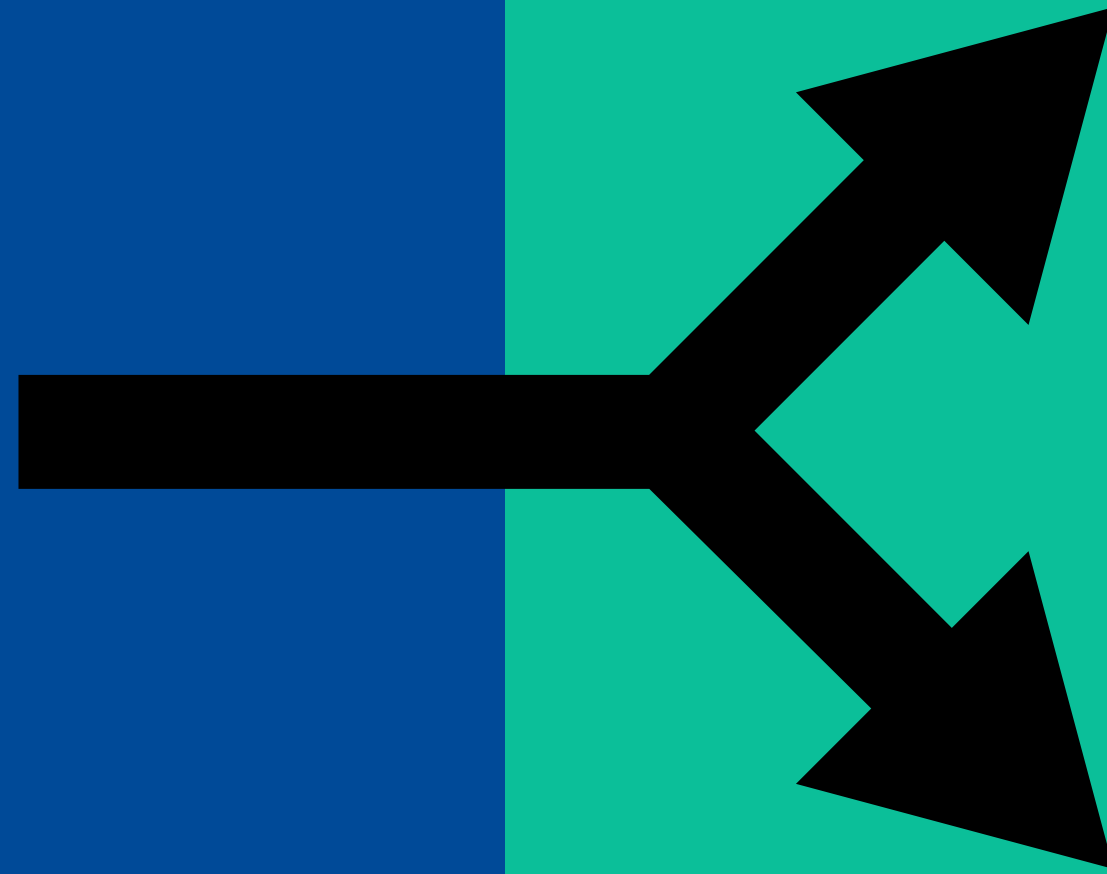

A blue-tinted photograph of a residential street. In the foreground, two people are sitting on a dark metal bench, viewed from behind. They are looking across a paved road towards a row of houses and trees. A red pickup truck is parked on the right side of the road. The word "Challenges" is overlaid in large white text in the center of the image.

What did we learn?

What now?

TAYke Off!

Summer
Camp
2023

In Summary

- Summer camp is an excellent way to expand the population you serve.
- Summer camp is an effective place to learn new skills.
- Summer camp is a great place to facilitate friendship building.
- Independence is a worthwhile and legitimate goal – and is something that many TAY are working towards.
- Disabled leadership & staff are necessary when running a program for disabled people.

Thank you!
