

Table of Contents

Volume 31 Number 1, 2026 – Special Guest Edited Issue

Original Works: Articles, Reflections, Research Articles

- Foreward
“We’re the Ones Holding It Together”: CCCE DSP Fellowship Voices on System Change. Foreword to the Journal on Developmental Disabilities Special Issue on DSPs Part 2
Claudiane Coutu Arbour, Sue Hutton, Kirsten Jerstad, Nicolas Potapenko, Fredrica Pottinger, Katelyn Provo, Edward Rawson and Jordan Wiley
- The Good, Bad and Ugly of British Columbia DSP
Jodie Dessau
- Strengthening Workforce Identity and Standards: A Case for a Professional Association Among Ontario’s Direct Support Professionals
Ann Hines, Nicole Bobbette and Lisa Whittingham
- PERSPECTIVE: Valuing Our DSP Knowledge and Practice in Social Work Education
Anna Przednowek, Kia Winger and Teri-Lyn French
- A Collective Exhale: Mindfulness, Connection, and Staff Well-being. A Reflection on mindfulness groups specific for Direct Support Professionals
Sue Hutton, Gwen Jones and Roberta Caputo
- Lots of trials and errors”: Direct Support Professionals’ Perspectives on Facilitating Meaningful Participation with Adults with Developmental Disabilities
Nicole Bobbette, Beata Batorowicz, Lori Johnson, Amanda Hartley, Vera Ralin, Steph Lackey and Agnieszka Fecica

- Bridging The Gap: Through a Student Lens

Amy Bennet

- Prendre soin de ceux qui prennent soin : la réalité des hommes travaillant en ressource à assistance continue (RAC)

Andrée-Anne Lachapelle1, Marie-Michèle Dufour, Valérie Martin et Jessica Dubé